To Corcoran High School's first graduating class go our heartiest congratulations. We extend to each member sincere best wishes for future success and happiness.

Our faculty has done its best to prepare you for the years ahead, and success that comes to you will be a tribute to the faculty as well as yourself.

We hope you will continue to maintain interest in and loyalty to your Alma Mater.

Cordially,

Frederick W. Whiteside

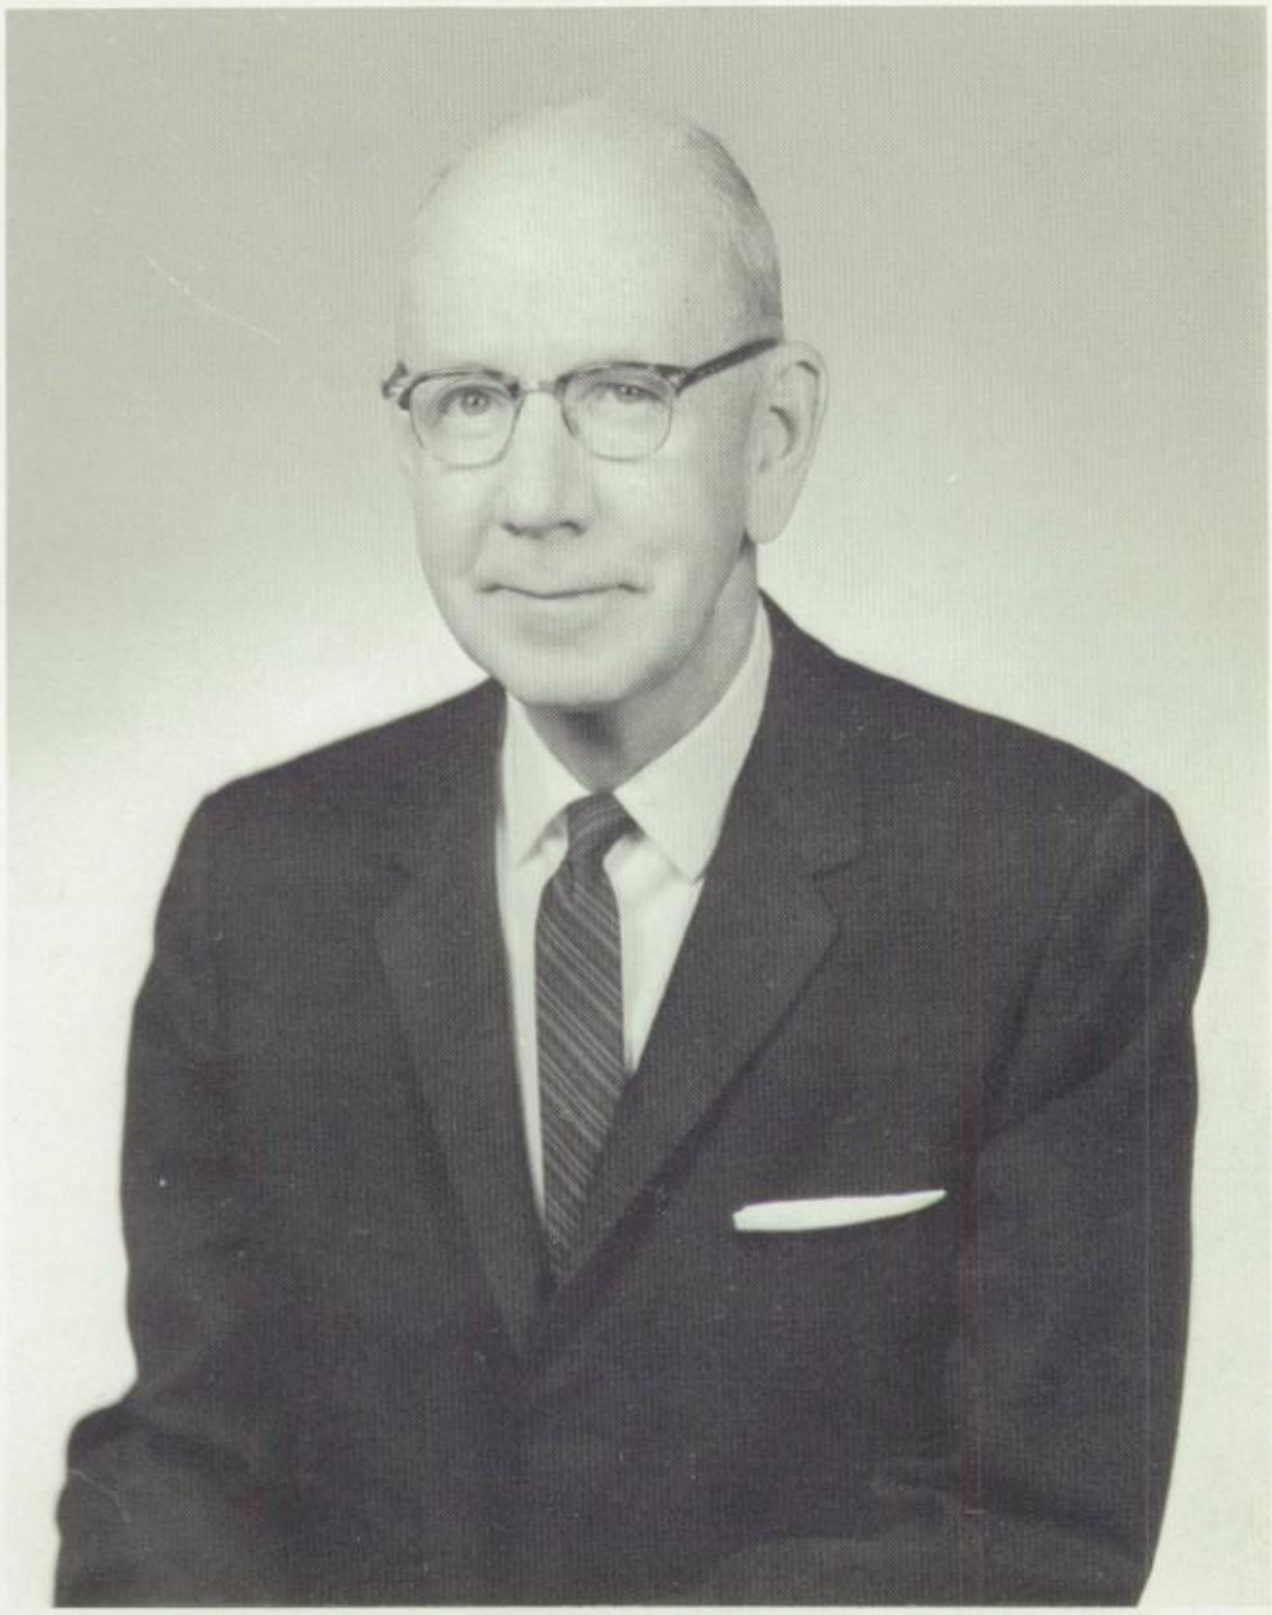
Dedication



We, the graduating class of Thomas J. Corcoran High School, dedicate this yearbook to our principal, Mr. Frederick Whiteside. Mr. Whiteside has devoted more than half a lifetime to the education of his students. Even though many of us have known him for less than a year, his dedication to the pupils of this school has been proven.

And so, to Mr. Whiteside we proudly dedicate the first "Glen Echo".

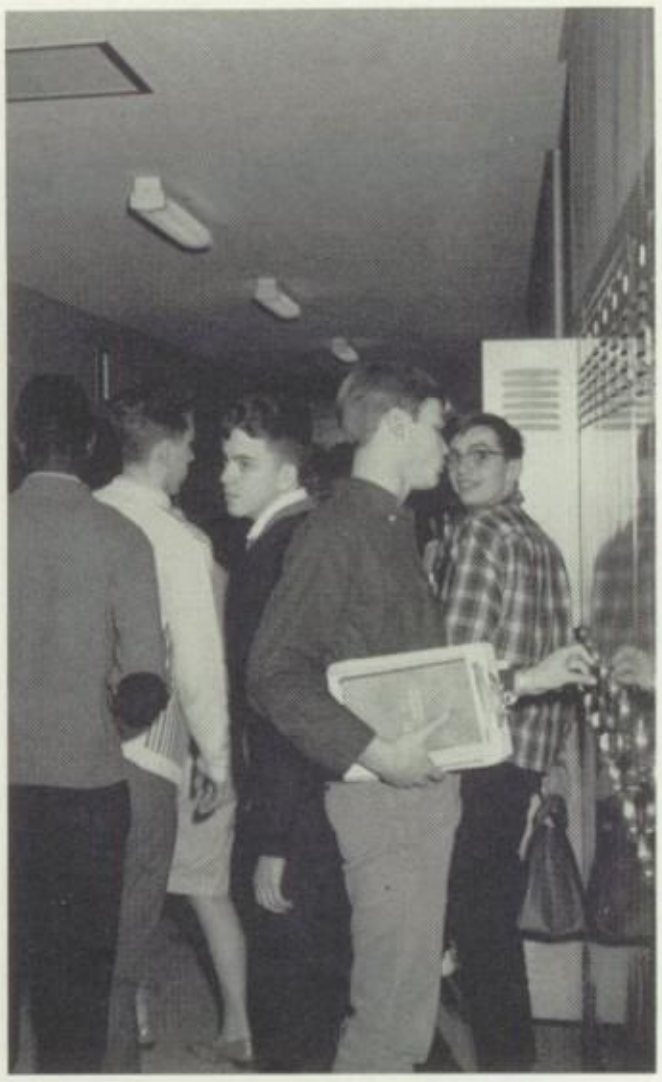
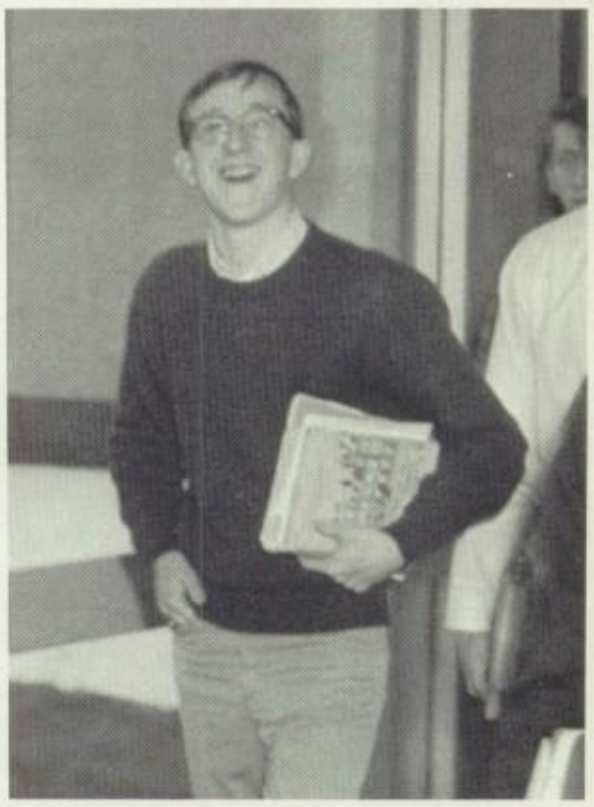
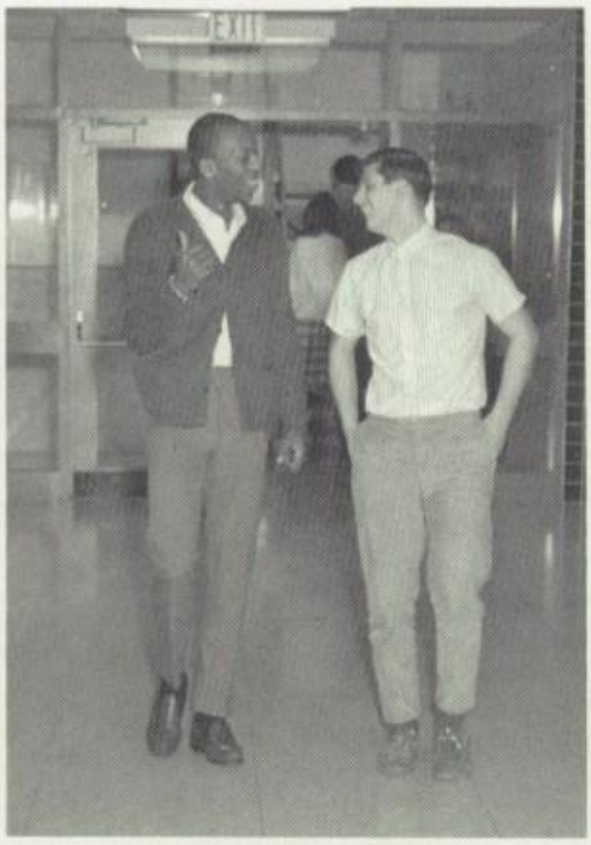
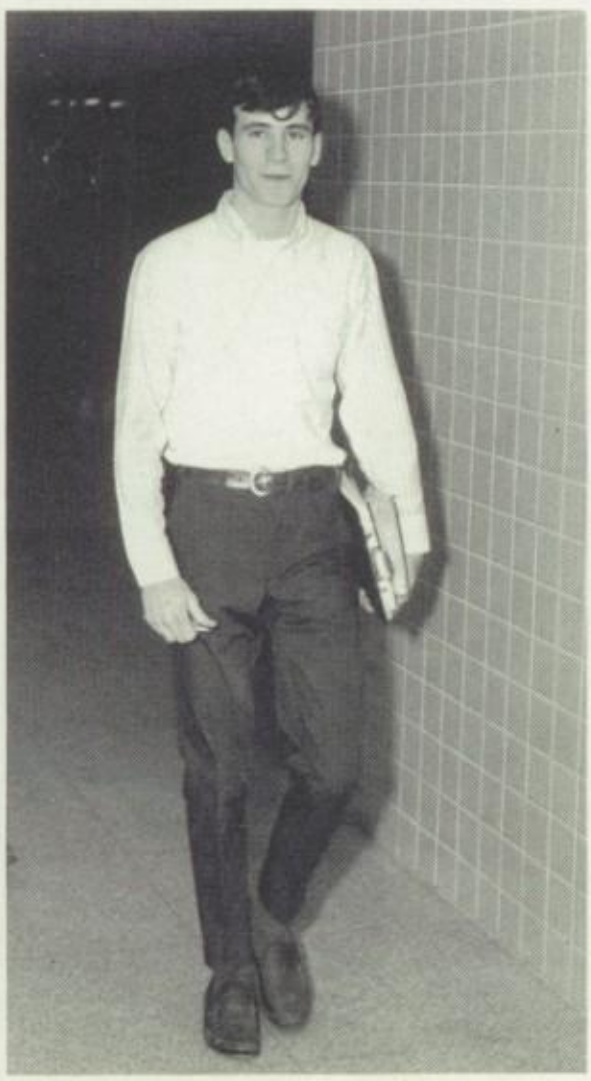
I, Don Zawacki, leave.
I, Janet Zogg, leave English grammar happily.

Walkin' the Halls









THE CLASS PROPHECY OF CORCORAN HIGH SCHOOL FOR 1966

written by Janice Covard
and
Jennifer Constantine

The year is 1975 . . . the scene is anywhere and everywhere. The characters are the alumni of the first graduating class of the Thomas J. Corcoran High School.

Jerry DeBottis is presently in jail. It seems the brakes in his jalopy failed while giving Rosemary Scott a driving lesson, resulting in a four car collision with Officer Moose Weigand, Evelyn Kenyon, John Hallinan, and Bill Finch. An altercation broke out, but Bob Collett was there to break it up. When the incident was reported to Chief of Police, Deano Pride, he ordered his secretary, Arrie Lee Wagner, to bring him a drink . . . of water . . . so he might be able to proceed with the arrest. Just for the record, DeBottis and his driver were both inebriated. What's this city coming to?

Elaine Pasternak, a very deserving soul, finally got the private office she so needed during her senior year in high school. Instead of chasing employees for her hard-earned wages, they now come to her for their pay . . . as she is the sole owner of Pasternak Investment Company. Catering to her every need is her trusty staff of Jeanine Hinckley, Trudy Gehring, Karen Braden, Sandy Gardner, Laurie Tancona, and Sue Avery.

Further into the business field we find Mike Riley, the proud owner of Meltzer's Unlimited with Marilyn Finley, Linda Hunt, and Nadine Holgate as his personal secretaries.

Richie Lessaongang is the proud owner of a prospering fish market and beanery named "Richie's." How's Business coming along R.L.?

Steve Talov owns a quaint little store in an elevated pavillion on Fifth Avenue; the only one in existence, with Linda Young heading the business office as personnel manager. William Lischak and Don Rogers are working in the Sporting Goods Department selling basketballs, footballs, and boating equipment; after having individually tested each piece of equipment at Bob Joy's lodge in the Adirondack Mountains.

Yvonne Cotanch, Gail Dominicos, and Deborah Crowley are working in the Women's Department . . . but it seems that the female public isn't really satisfied, since the salesladies are buying all the unique and most stylish articles for themselves, leaving little for public choice. One dissatisfied customer was Barb Grievelding, who ranted and raved so much that Miss Young had to hire her so she, too, could have first choice!!!

In the Exotic Foods Department is connoisseur Jeff Chard, who is manager and chief taster. He was chosen for this particular field because of his superb taste and fine judgment in the buying and preparation of fine foods. April Lambert and Bob Best are his most frequent customers . . . their favorite choice—pickled squid tentacles.

Karl Auffhamer is very busy manufacturing typewriters. John Ciferni occupies his time designing them for sale at Sandy Elia's Typewriter Sales and Service.

Rocco Grillo is a prominent figure throughout New York State. He owns a prosperous firm that designs and manufactures hats for oversized heads.

Noted stock car driver, Jerry Hawk, acclaimed great fame in the Indianapolis 500 . . . not because he is a great driver, but because of his performance during the run he lost a wheel, stopped the car, got out, picked up the end of the car that was in need of repair, and ran . . . ironically enough, he came in first . . .with axle in hand and feet afire. Fireman John Feak saved the poor soul's life with his prompt action with the fire hose. Speaking of racing, Carmen Pecora, a Hell's Angel, got into a drag race the other day with none other than Mrs. Jane Swidwerski.

Quite a few of Corcoran's alumni turned to the profession most unlikely to be turned to—teaching. Erika Fornario is a swim instructor. The two students most unlikely to learn how to swim are Maxine Thompson and Kathye Goode. Bob Walrath and Jim Menikheim are American history teachers. Among their outstanding students are Marion Demko, Ricardo Fernandez, Cleve Morey, Gary Breh, Dotty McCue, Art Walsh, Kathy Kolis, and Mike Haines. Gloria Price is also an instructor. She teachers good posture and the ability to remain silent. Sue Ballard, Linda Humphrey, Cathy O'Donnell, and Bob Blair are now doing the fun things that they didn't dare do during their year at Corcoran . . . breaking windows, stealing erasers, greasing hand rails, door knobs, and stairs . . . as members of the faculty, don't you think that this is going a little too far?!! Their favorite tease is to continually push the buttons in the elevators, causing the contraptions to become jammed between floors . . . usually with teachers and students on them! At any rate, they are keeping maintenance men Dave Bishop, Dave France, Larry Hackett, Art Crumb, and Don Cogswell quite busy.

In the business program is John Munda who is teaching American business problems. Linda Ellis and Sharon Elmore are his "prize" students. Instructing business law is Linda Holbrook, whose student teacher is none other than Bonnie Kolonko. Bonnie seems to be having a rough time teaching Joann Brown and Robert Neuman. Joe George is teaching a public speaking class. Linda Sabha, after quitting her job at Dey Brothers, turned to teaching retailing as a career. Larissa Nadtotschinsky is teaching in elementary school. Her major was spelling. With a name like that, she can't lose! Kay Coonley is Girl's Counselor at Nottingham and Mike Markham is the Boy's Counselor . . . their hardest problem is creating good-will between their old alma mater and their present place of employment . . .

Imogene Nunn, Patti Patterson, Sandy Allen, Cheryl Gilbert and Eva Berry, all expert swimmers, are runners up in the 1975 Olympics. In the track division of the Olympics, we find teeney Guss Harrison. Guss runs the hundred yard dash in 9-1, but is determined to break Joel McAllister's record of 9 flat.

Two of the "Big Three" of that great and long since remembered champion basketball team, James "Pedro" Collins and Robert "Lopez" Stroman are now playing professional ball with that great team, the Boston Celtics. James, in his spare time, is singing with a group called the del-Supremes and attending to his extremely large family of little "J.C.'s"; while Bob spends most of his spare time catching the black-haired mermaids he has in his private little pool . . . in the seclusion of his plush apartment deep in the heart of Beverly Hills. Cheerleading for the Celtics are Chris DeMaio, Rosalie Groth, Janice Pallo, Linda Hendricks, Lorraine DeShane, Linda Aseltine, Jeanna Daley, Eileen Carey, Linda McIntyre, Carol Russell, Betty Richway, and Karen Whedon.

Millionaires John Rohner, Mike Bittner, and Gary Merkel are sitting on the corner of Wall Street comparing bankbooks with these millionairesses: actress Mimi Manning, debutante Chris Martakis, and socialite Mary Weathers.

Criminal lawyer Sandy Zacharek just won another case in Supreme Court. It seems that Randy LaValley was arrested while in possession of $40,000 worth of hot jewels. Prosecuting attorney Frank Abajian tried to blame the ingenious theft on LaValley, but Abajian should have used common sense rather than facts and figures . . . mainly because the defendant hasn't the intelligence to execute such a plan, and secondly, because one can never win an argument with a woman!

On the European scene we find Carlo Talucci a toreador in Madrid, fighting bulls belonging to that famed animal trainer, Ronnie Salerno. Walking the tightrope are Ed Ryan, Steve Carey, William Czyz, and Donaldien Hurry, a famous act which is the sensation of Germany. Joe Spano is an Italian night club owner and entertainer, who serenades his customers with the background accompaniment of Don Oliver, Rick Sagar, Ken Burwell, Tom Fox, Bruce Hand, and John Sheedy.

Yes, even in the deep, dark jungles in the homeland of the Wooley Bully, we find that world-renowned movie director and producer, Tony DelVechio, accompanied by his stenographer and animal tamer, Cathy Cleveland. At the present time, he is engaged in locating a cougar that isn't hungry all the time, as it is most difficult to put an actor's head into its mouth and expect to bring it out again in one piece. So far in the vain attempt, stunt men Dave Erhardt, Vince Pendock, John Licamele, Ben Krzkowski, and Dick O'Brien have, what one might say, lost their heads over the situation.

Father Donald Uhl is a priest at Our Lady of Lourdes Church and is doing his ultimate for fellow man.

As a minister of God, Gary Paddock is a missionary over in Tanzania, working where the need is great. The latest reports on him show that his zeal and intense love are proving fruitful.

Also in Tanzania, Keith Bell, Mike Adams, and Kenny Ray took it upon themselves to teach those fun loving citizens the American way of life . . . specifically, American music. Dick Allison is also accompanying this trio. With the assistance of Joe Donelon, Gary White, and Dick Walsh, they are teaching what they consider the finer part of music . . . brass. Also on this good-will campaign for the United States we find Josie Salerno, Diane Delorio, Cindy Porter, Jerri Rice, Sharon Tomeny, Carolyn Scalzo, and Dave Champlin giving singing lessons. I can't possibly forget to mention the most important and amusing scene in this little setting . . . Woody Patterson giving dancing lessons . . . or is it the other way around? And that dear, sweet, lovable person we may have known as Paddy, or Paychit Sampaonguan, our former American Field Service Student from Thailand, is a good-will ambassador for the United Nations. She is doing a fine job.

Many of the former Cougars stuck to land, some chose the water . . . but if you'll notice . . . throughout this wide and vast world, a Corcoranite can always be found somewhere . . . doing something out of the ordinary. For example, Steve Farrington, Don Kastler, Gary Palmeter, Dave Macri, Gene Moser, Jerry Solan and Gary Woodman, took to the air as pilots for either the Air Force, or commercial airline companies. Dave Clay, Jim Sprague, Donald Welsh, Art Watkins, Don Zwacki, and Dave Kelly took their chances in the water . . . either in the Navy, or the Merchant Marines. John Tuttle, Pete Carnright, Rick Harte, Gary Jones, Jim Kraft, Tim Mumford, and Robert Brown, all ardent seamen of the U.S.S. WOLF were found floating on a raft in the Red China Sea with seven native girls!!! However, before bringing the boys stateside, the girls were once again deposited on their home island, homesick and heartbroken. Pilot Dave Poquadeck and stewardess Eileen Brown spotted the raft and thought it was a small island, as it was cleverly concealed from the air, with palm branches and seaweed.

Kathy Doss, Mary Hall, Sue Dickinson, Ron Hardy, Virginia McNulty, and Elwin Simpson, are maintaining the safekeeping of the youngsters during the summer months at our local park pools. Commissioner of Parks, Neil Shaugnessey, recently passed an ordinance prohibiting surf boards in the pool areas. Now, local beach bums, Sally Anderson, Karen Muir, Carol Rafka, Linda Marchionne, Vivian Alexander, Dan Murphy, Britt Westrin, Diane Przybylski and Barb Ciampi will have to really start pooling their funds so they can one day go to the land of the really big waves . . . Hawaii. Isn't it terrible? Now they can no longer take their surfboards to McKinley Park Pool!

Artists Alice Karolewski, Jim Stockin, Bob Szpak, and Allen Morton are still in the process of painting the town red . . . when they have finished that, they plan to paint Routes 68 and 1, the same!!!

Watching with keen eye, the wearers of the Rudi Gernreich creations at a fashion show at Saks 5th Avenue: Connie Hinds, Chris MacMasters, Saskia Lehtla, Patricia Hanlon, Melanie Hulbert, are professional football player, Rufus Preston, criminal lawyer Alex Romanenko, Dr. Edward McLaughlin, and champion wrestler Jack Erhard.

Chemist Greg Albright has just created a formula that grows hair in excess. Hairdresser and assistant Bev Maroney is applying the mixture to Hank Rogala's now bald head, while Terry "Noggin" Nicholson, Terry Lawton, Sue Bradley, Stan LaTocha and Roy Broadway are waiting patiently for their turn.

Novelist and author Donna Barnhill has just finished another best-seller entitled, "The Red Tam."

Poet, Pete Carroll has just finished his debut at the Sands, in Las Vegas. He brought the house down . . . literally.

Tini Green is the smiling owner of a quaint, out of the way restaurant named "BOWMAN'S." Debra Little is the mastermind that mixes the wild and potent drinks, "BOWMAN'S" is famous for.

Comedian Keith Crawford has just finished cutting a record entitled, "Right".

Dress designer, Brenda Emmert is designing all the latest styles for the teenage set in Seventeen magazine. Cheryl Mackey is also associated with a nationally famous magazine . . . Vogue. She is the editor-in-chief and Charlene Sempo is the manager of the Ad Layout Department.

Nancy Douglas is a French teacher at Nottingham High School. Remember the friction between our great school and theirs during basketball season? Presently, she is in hot water with the principal because she keeps insisting her students learn the word "Corcoran" in French.

Modeling for labels on the Jolly Green Giant cans is John Sauleitis. He traded his basketball uniform in for a loin cloth and vest of leaves.

Salesman Bob Hard just left the East coast headed for the Antarctic. He was assigned this mission because he was such a powerful salesman. His goal is to sell refrigerators to the inhabitants of Antarctica. If you think that's odd . . . Millie Schell, Darlene Secore, Dan Casler, and Marcel LeBruen are Game Wardens in the Okeefinokee Swamp in Florida. They were hired to protect the innocent little toads found sitting on lily pads. Some villain has been capturing the little creatures and cruelly breaking their legs. The game wardens are quite busy putting casts on their damaged limbs.

There are those of us who thought the Blizzard of '66 . . . when we all were buried under umpteen feet of snow and ice was unsurpassable. It was until this momentous year when, snow shovelers: Stan Dombrowski, Rosemary Maslak, Ida Russo, Sharon Pierce, Mary Trudell, Joe Dixie, Bill Martin, Patti Nicholas, Linda Lambert, Nancy Morris, Jan Kraus, and Bill Bradley under the supervision and instruction of that noted leader and boss, Lenore Zaleppa, were determined to help uncover the "Salt City".

During that week of paralysis, the telephone operators of the New York Telephone Company were doing their very best to place calls for half-buried souls to their parents and beaus who were mystified as to their whereabouts. These operators were; Doris Cleaver, Mary Lou Archer, Susie Reed, Kathy Golden, Mickie Trytek, Kathy Ellis, Judy Klock, Mary Jane Ellen, Georgia Davis, Sharon Basto, and of course, Cheryl Luttrell, who just couldn't stay off their own phones during their high school years. Their talkativeness finally proved to be of some value during the crisis that engulfed Syracuse.

While we were wondering where the bread for our next triple decker sandwich was coming from, Bakers; Joe Seeley, Dan Klamm, Steve Kimber, Roy Blanford, and Jim Wyatt were literally, baking up a storm. Then the evident problem of distribution arose . . . How were deliveries going to be made if the bread trucks were snowed in? So Alex Chorney, Jim Scholz, Donna LaCasse, Larry Smith, and Paula Molivas, were quite busy trying to shovel out the trucks.

The milk situation presented even another problem. Agriculturalists, William Fike, Ron Ager, Denny Dottolo and Terry Kriz were trying to keep their cows from becoming flustered so they could provide homes with the milk, they so badly needed.

It seemed, in everyone's home, a different problem arose. Pete Speno's wife went into labor when the snow was at its deepest . . . I'll say no more except it was a healthy 8 pound baby boy. Mike Tafel's front porch roof collapsed with the weight of the snow . . . and his mother-in-law happened to be standing on it at the time. Terri Smith's cat had kittens . . . eight of them . . . Harold Figie couldn't find his Austin-Healey Sprite for more than a week!

Yes, the Blizzard of '75 was a week of remembrance. I'm sure the alumni of Corcoran will never forget the unfortunate or amusing predicament each one of us encountered during that week of seige.

News reporter, Fred Kozlowski, feasted on the news and happenings on Channel 45 (T.V.) and radio station, G.R.R.R., with all the openings and closings of schools and businesses. Cameraman, Steve Naum took some fabulous shots of buried doghouses, icy snow-covered fire hydrants, snowmen, children playing and snow falling. However, the pictures weren't of particularly great interest. Since he is fairly new on the job, his boss Joe Krzykowski was willing to forgive him for his first blunder, but when Steve returned later that afternoon with 44 feet of film depicting his wife shoveling out his driveway, he really blew his chances of ever becoming a top-rate photographer.

The month of January brought us a new array of television entertainment. One high-lighted program of the season as "Batman". I can remember Bill Donnelly telling me one day in the well-used smoking area, that he had a deep psychological problem. He also told me he had quit his job at Carroll's Drive-in because the hours he worked interferred with the time spots of "Batman". His need and desire was to one day, be his idol, "Batman". Billy finally got his desire. It seems the former Batman was driven insane by that conniving character, "The Riddler." Robin, then, refused to play in the series without him. Therefore, Batman's and Robin's greatest fans were chosen to portray those gallant crime-fighters. They were determined by the amount of fan-mail sent into them by the fans. The two characters chosen to fit the bill were Bill Donnelly and Lauren Moberg. So, to keep in touch with the new Batman and Robin, tune in same time . . . same bat channel. P.S. they both look adorable in their bat-tights.

Vera Markopolski is a new figure in the Mr. Ed series. She is Mr. Ed's keeper and financial advisor.

Among the many talented people of Corcoran was a young man with great ingenuity. That person is none other than Frank Stagnitta who was the sole musical director of the Spring Show presented by the Speech and Drama Department, under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Carr. Frank is now playing his finest and most classical pieces at Carnegie Hall.

Then too, a great many of the students didn't care for the frills and fancies of a career. Many joined the service . . . many went to college . . . and many just married, settling down to a house full of kids and a busy eight-hour working day.

Those that joined the service to serve their great and prospering country were: in the Marines, Ed Yackel, Bill Walden, Matt Olszewski, Bill Roberge, John Webster, Marc Milliman, Dave Litz, Jim Brescia, and Bill Winchell, who are still defending freedom in the under-developed countries of Europe and Asia; in the WACS, we find, Linda Bedell, Gloria Allen, Carol Doyle, Jeanne Seeley, Sharon Elmore, Kelly Semmons, Barb Yancy, Sue Turverey, and Ruth Killenbec; in the Army, we find, Pete Bronstad, Bob Churchill, Tim Sheehan, Harold Wilbur, Dave Libby, Joe McCarthy, Harrison McKibben, and Mike Millard. Serving on the U.S.S. Camaraderie in the United States Navy are Jeff Kemp, Terry Woodard, Dick Kazel, Dave Kelley, Norm Marshall, Al Kieffer, Dave Mele, and Dave Miller. The WAVES aboard this fine ship are, Sharon Egan, Diane Bottrill, Diane Guido, Lauraine Harrington, Marilyn McDonough, Marilyn Paetow and Patti Ann Kot.

Those who furthered their education were . . . Marlene Hudson at Syracuse University . . . Natalie Kowalczuk and Patti Hunt at Farmingdale . . . Tim Millicich, Roger Jillson, Paul Houndt and Karen Kimball at the University of Miami and Marsha Hunt and Linda Jacobs at U.C.L.A.

The girls who married and have happy homes with small children running about are, Linda Donohue, Cheryl Finch, Jackie Ceratt, Kathy Chrisman, Sue Griffin, Charlotte Hunt, Shirley Petrovich, Laura O'Connell, Donna Kingsbury, and Charlene Wilson. Jan Covard is the proud mother of a first-string basketball team and four cheerleaders . . . so far . . .

The guys who finally let themselves be caught were; John Bowers, Ed Ferguson, Wesley Ganoe, Paul Horn, Ronnie Windsor, and Dick Young. Those few girls that are still chasing are; Jackie Mantor, Joanne Satalino, and Luba Korolyszyn. It is fairly evident . . . boys can run faster.

Some traveled to all the corners of the world. Marion Sauve is modeling children's clothing in Paris. Cindy Szelewski is a world acclaimed make-up artist for the French movie theatres. Linda Stottlar is a high fashioned hair-stylist on an ocean-going vessel that returns to the states every six months. Anna Marie Ure is an interpreter for the United Nations, in Europe. June Wilkinson is a little ol' winemaker in the Swiss Colony. If you ride to the top of the Eiffel Tower in Paris, you'll run across Fran Truax giving inexpensive tours of the tower.

Everywhere you may turn, whether in the United States, in the water, in the air, or in Europe and Asia, it is quite possible and highly probable you will see a 1966 graduate of T.J.C.

Three weeks ago, Kathy Carey found a key and an old yellow map. The key is supposed to belong to the locker of Davy Jones. Right now if you were to peer on the bottom of the Atlantic Ocean, swimming with the starfish and sharks, we would find Kathy . . . searching for that locker.

Harold Broadwater, noted for his famous alcoholic mixtures, is no longer playing collegiate ball. He is presently employed in the laboratory of Seagrams 7. His tasters are, Mike Garn, Tim McCann, Pete Peters, and Nancy Butler.

Cougar astronauts, Tom Kearney, Tony Truskalo, Joe Logan, Dorothy Druce and Karen Peck, just returned from a moon shot and are, at present, being examined and re-examined by doctors, Tom Applin and Bill Lubak and nurses, Zoanne Burgess, Jane Blanford and Judy Pearsall.

And down on the South Pole, Norbert Paulus is playing the full-time role of that jolly ol' Christmas figure . . . St.Nick. Evidently, he did such a fine job in the Christmas play, he was too good to pass up! His chief toy designers and makers are Diane Disalto, Sandy Compton, Mary Abramson, Sue Meaker and Arlene Casey.

Donna Pomfrey and Judy Kaminski are authors of a best-seller entitled, "Happiness is Being an Editor".

In the entertainment world, comedian Tim Linehan recently returned from making his 19th appearance on the Ed Sullivan Show. Patti Purcell is making underwater movies with James Bond, Lynette Curtis and Jackie Waugaman are makeup artists for the flick; while, Diane Joncas, Marcy Bafus and Sue Keville are fashion coordinators on the set.

The Cleveland Browns are fortunate to have with them, Mark Lasky, Larry Gershbacher, Chuck Mara, and Roger Fletcher. Sports photographer for the local morning newspaper is Lydia Leoniwa, who acquired much skill during her junior and senior years photographing action shots during the basketball games.

Helen Fredette, Bettyann Kempter, Janelle Johnson, and Bev Phillips are Fashion Editors for the New York Times. The editor is Barb Marsh. The Advertising Editor for this great paper is Marlene Puzzullo; while, Janet Woolverton and Carol Griffith, as Art Editors are doing fine.

Meanwhile, in Greenwich Village, Jackie Usakowicz, Julie Lawless, and Cheryl Laws, who just returned from a holiday in Great Britain, are dating those popular Englanders, The Rolling Stones. The Stones are appearing at the "Coffee Cup", sharing the billing with that great swordswallower, Harold Johnson.

The now completely mad scientists, Denny Eberline, Margot Wright, Richard Fetner, Carol Hunter, John Gallagher and Carol Thompson have just finished creating, in bio-plastics, the reproductory system of a worm.

Recent newspaper articles have reported the whereabouts of a Gypsy who ran away from her people ten years ago. The only clues the authorities had, was that she enrolled in a public high school, had long black hair, blue eyes and was tall and well spoken. The girl . . . Jennifer Constantine, the school . . . Corcoran . . . Just think, had we known, we could have turned her over to the authorities and collected the reward. Nevertheless, she has returned to her caravan and is content with the task of dancing around the campfire, enchanting all her past lovers.

PEACE has just been declared! We are no longer at war with Viet Nam. President of the United States, Rick Ferry, stated the facts clearly this morning at a press conference. Vice-President, Perry Corbett, now gasping for another breath, just returned from a goodwill tour of East Germany . . . and Speaker of the House, Maureen Holgate is wiping his perspiring brow. Steve Horbanczuk is also a member of this well-constructed cabinet as President Protempt. Mike Mather is a member of the Senate.

Not the entire class of '66 made a go of their lives . . . as you discovered earlier, some acquired riches, some acquired fame . . . others were content with mere happiness and someone to love. We cannot forget those souls who think money is the root of all evil, mainly because they don't have any. However, as long as he is happy with his life, who are we to judge him? Dan Callas can usually be found resting on the greenest, thickest grass . . . near the sweetest smelling flowers . . . and under the leafiest tree in Thornden Park . . . basking in the warm sun and just taking life as easy as possible. Here is one guy who won't die from overworking!

Janet Zogg is busying herself with the task of making that delicious treat, "Temptation Chocolates". Her factory is filled with the fresh aroma of melted chocolate and roasted peanuts.

Patti Kitts is experimenting with the different fragrances of perfumes manufactured by Avon . . .

Every teenage radio station has an idiot disc jockey. When we were ten years younger, we had Bud Ballou. Now, feebleminded D.J. of this day and age is Earl Crowell, on radio station, G.R.R.R., 114 on your dial.

During the week of March, we had some very unpredictable weather . . . one day it might rain, the next day, it might go down to 16° below zero. I remember, it rained so hard one weekend that on Monday morning, Doreen Schreiner, Rahna Wilbur, Kathy Wallace, Carol Robinson, Debbie Smith and Patty Hunt went to work in a canoe.

The beginning of the school year in 1965, brought much confusion. It was exciting moving into the big school . . . located in a gully with a creek running beneath it. Because the classrooms weren't equipped with windows, we couldn't tell what kind of day it was. The jokers of the class couldn't resist saying that well-used phrase, "Mrs. . . . . look at all the snow! Habitually, the teacher would turn to look out the window and find the entire class laughing at her, for she was gazing at a green blackboard!!!

All in all, the first year at T.J.C. was full of memories for all of us. I only hope, they are pleasant ones. So now, the Class Prophecy ends . . . and each member descends upon his destined path through the many walks of life . . .

American Field Service

The American Field Service, composed of Americans and thousands of young people from all over the world started its history in Paris during the First World War as a volunteer ambulance service. During those years, A.F.S. volunteers worked side by side with men of foreign countries. After the war the A.F.S. decided to continue creating these personal contacts by starting a student exchange program. At first only college students participated, and then in 1947 it was decided that understanding could be more easily established with younger high school students. Today there are over 3,000 students in the American Field Service here and abroad.

Corcoran's foreign student this year is Paychit Sampaonguam, an AFSer from Thailand, who is staying with the Malcolm Clark family. At home in Thailand she has her parents, and three sisters. Last year Paychit studied her first year at Teacher School which is the same level as 11th and 12th grades in High School. Next year Paychit plans to complete her education and become a teacher.

This year's A.F.S. winner was Karen Peck who spent her summer in Landautown, Germany. She stayed with the Heinz Keysers family where she had her "parents", Herr and Frau Keysers and brother Ralph and a sister Liliane. During her visit, she traveled through France, Germany, the Netherlands, Switzerland, and Italy. Karen's experiences have helped us all to gain a better understanding of foreign countries; their people and their customs.

ACTIVITIES

Honor Society

The purpose of Honor Society is to encourage higher scholastic rating, to represent the school in outside activities, and to provide cooperative cultural and social activities. The qualifications for admittance to Honor Society are: 90% average for sophomores, 88% for juniors and 85% for seniors.

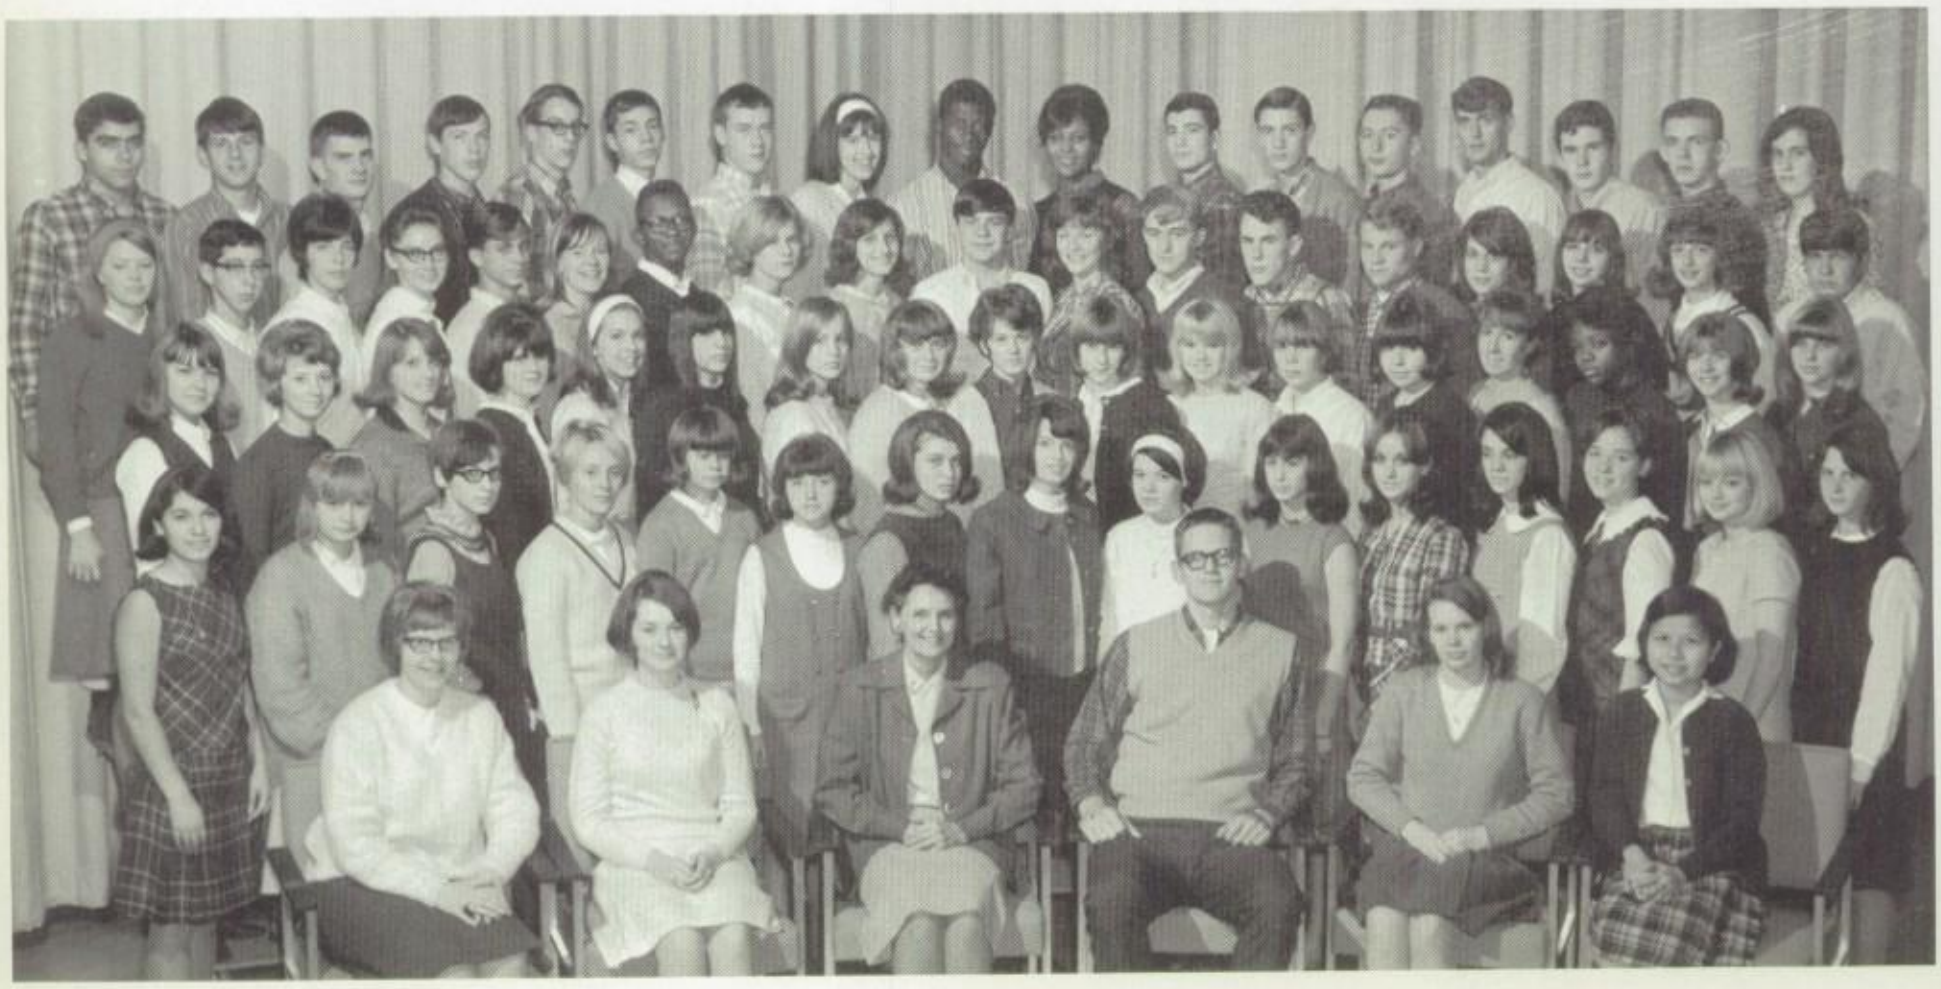
This year's activities include the Salvation Army Christmas Cheer drive, the providing of student ushers and guides at the dedication, and a Hootenanny.

Officers are: Tom Applin, President; John Saulietis, Co-President; Terri Smith, Secretary; Norbert Paulus, Treasurer.

Student Council

The Student Council of Corcoran will soon be completing its first year. The projects of most concern are the establishment of a Student Court, the organization of school activities, school dances, and the organization of the AFS program.

Officers are : John Saulietis, President; Donna Pomfrey, Vice President; Linda Hendricks, Secretary; Carol Hunter, Treasurer.



The Quill

The co-editors of the Quill are Tom Applin and Barb Marsh. This year is a first for the Quill, Corcoran's newspaper, and will hopefully be the first of many years. Published by the students interested in writing, the Quill gives a truthful account of Corcoran news and activities. All the major phases of the newspaper are under the supervision of the advisors, Mr. Berrigan and Mr. Quagliata.

Pi Omicron

The qualifications for admittance to Pi Omicron are an 85% average in all subjects and a 90% mark on the last math regents. The advisor of the club is Mrs. Perrotta.

Science Club

The officers for the first Science Club of Corcoran are: Fran Truax, Biology Chairman; John Bowers, Physics Chairman; Bonnie Beach, Secretary; and Steve Wolniac, Treasurer.

The projects for this year include the Living Science Museum, Guest Lecture Series and field trips which are under the direction of the three advisors, Mr. Hoag, Miss Bordonaro, and Mr. Scarvill.

Advanced Biology

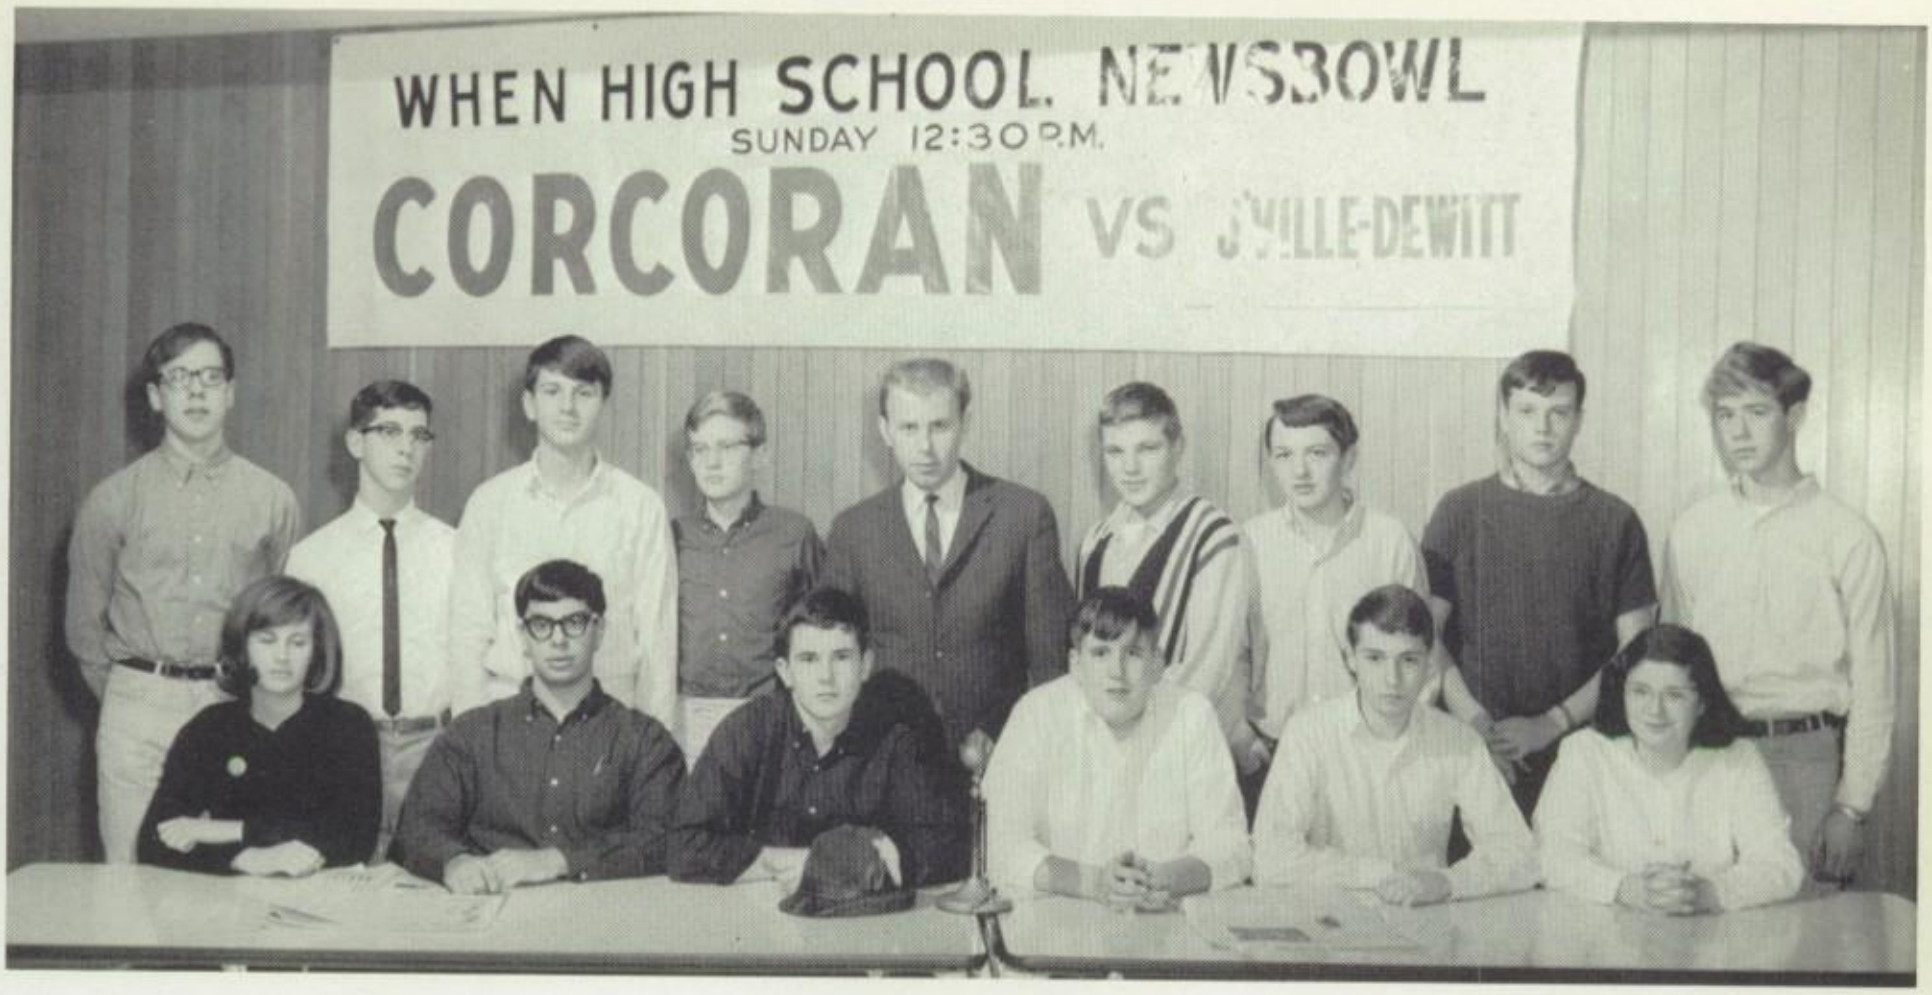
Advanced Biology is a select group of seniors who have taken Chemistry and have attained an 85% on a science regents along with a teachers recommendation and a high interest. The students use college texts and are required to write several research papers during the year.



Newsbowl

The Newsbowl competes for the winner's trophy with several city and county schools in the field of current events and history. The programs are broadcast over WHEN radio. Members are: Row 1: Carol White, Gene Pietromonica, Jack Gallagher, Rick Allison, Jim Truax, Shirley Forties. Row 2: Paul Swinburne, Gerry Marsh, Alan Hoxie, Mark Huddleson, Mr. Doty (advisor), Jim Kozlowski, Don Cogswell, Pete Bronstead, Larry Merrithew.

Future Teachers of America

This year's program is centered around student teaching at Robert's School. Many of the future teachers attended the Carrier Conference. Also, as many of Corcoran's new clubs have done, the FTA drew up a new constitution.

Officers for the 1965-66 are Sue Ballard, President; Norbert Paulus, Vice President; Maureen Krantz, Secretary; Chrys Martakis, Treasurer. Miss Haines and Miss Freedman are the club's advisors.

Future Secretaries of America

The officers of this year's FSA are: Elaine Pasternak, President; Judy Kaminski, Vice President; Judy Costello, Secretary; Bonnie Kreisburg, Treasurer.

The Future Secretaries Association is sponsored by the National Secretaries Association (International). The NSA holds city-wide meetings for the FSA chapters once a month.

Plans for this year include a candy sale, bake sale, dance, and a picnic. The club is under the direction of Miss Frarey.

Future Homemakers of America

Row 1: Cheryl Luttrell, Secretary; Miss Miller, Advisor; Thersa Murphy, Mary Ann Fadden, Treasurer. Row 2: Rosalie Groth, Marva Nunn, Bernice Ballard, Mary Perry, Lydia Leoniewa. Row 3: Flossie McFadden, Linda Betts, Johnie Belinda Sullivan. Row 4: Imogene Nunn, Daisy Williams.

The projects for this year include the State Convention, which is to be held in Syracuse this year, a 21st birthday party, and a summer breakfast.

International Relations Club

The International Relations Club is an organization whose purpose is to further international relations among students. The projects for this year include IRC Day where AFS students from other schools visit Corcoran and a Model United Nations General Assembly at Auburn Community College. This year's officers are Janet Woolverton, President; Jane Blandford, Vice President; Terri Smith, Secretary; Karen Peck, Treasurer; Mrs. S. Good, Advisor.

Latin Club

The purpose of the club is to promote an interest in the Classics by gaining a knowledge of Roman life, history, and literature.

Activities this year include talks, slides, the celebration of the Roman festival, the Saturnalia, and a Roman Banquet in the spring.

Officers are: Barb Marsh, President; Sarah Singer, Vice President; Nadine Holgate, Secretary; Mike Markam, Treasurer; Miss D. Schamu, Advisor.

The officers for this year's Library Club are, President, Joe Dixie; Vice President, Edward Longtin; Secretary, Frances Palumbo; Treasurer, Jeannette Barry. The members assist Mrs. Mindich in the library in the combining of old and new books.

Distributive Education Club of America

DECA is a club to further students interest in the field of distribution. Areas such as sales, advertising, display, math, and marketing management are heavily emphasized. Projects for this year include a car wash, candy sale. The money received from these projects was used for dues and for the state conference in March at the Concord Hotel in the Catskill Mountains. Officers for this year are: Steve Talev, President; Linda Young, Vice President; April Lambert, Secretary; Joe Dixie, Treasurer; Sandra Allen, Historian; Roger Raymo, Parliamentarian. Mrs. Swiderski is the advisor.

Red Cross

The purpose of Red Cross is to help develop good community-minded citizens, assist in community Red Cross affairs, and train aids and assistants for the American National Red Cross. The projects for the 1965-66 year are a Red Cross water safety workshop and a fund raising campaign. Officers for this year are Cheryl Luttrell, Jim Collins, and Connie Hinds. Mr. Macko and Mr. Bryant are the advisors.

Banking

The school banking program is sponsored by the Syracuse Savings Banks and the Onondaga Savings Bank. It operates every Monday fifth period. Those in charge of banking are: Penny Sedgwick, Laura Jackson, Sue Troendle, Kathy Donnelly, Cassie Downey, Lynda Lambert, Barbara Biggar, Beverly Maroney, Miss Washville (Advisor).

SPORTS

Corcoran's first varsity football season proved to be an unsuccessful one, record-wise. Under new Coach Bradbury, the Cougars went down to defeat six times with only two tie games to our credit. However, in the first season, it was difficult to fully organize a whole system for this complex sport and thus a losing record resulted. A bright spot for the Cougar followers is that many lettermen are returning next year to provide a nucleus for a winning ball team.

Leading performers for the Cougar attack were second team All-City tackle Bob Weigand, and honorable mention stars, fullback Joe Logan and end Ed Mathews. Also showing great play were Joe Spano, Gus Harrison, junior Jerry Sakron, Mark Lasky, Bob Hard, Gary Breh, Ed McLaughlin, Carlo Talucci, and John Lautore.

Varsity Basketball

Winning the first Athletic Championship was the 1965-66 Varsity basketball team, compiling a 13-1 record and copping the CNY City League Title. After trailing Nottingham for over half the season, the Cougars thoroughly whipped Nottingham in the rematch game and are due to play Parochial League Champ, St. John the Evangelist in the All-City Championship game.

Leading players, who are probably destined for post season acclaim on All-City teams are League leading scorer Jim Collins, Great playmaker Joe Reddick, and Top rebounder Big Bob Stroman. Rounding out the starting five are John Saulietis and Steve Horbanczuk, with Howie Harlow as a fine backup man. Lost through graduation will be Jim Collins, Bob Stroman, John Saulietis, Steve Horbanczuk, Jeff Kemp, Steve Naum, Chuck Mara, and Jim Wyatt. However, the nucleus for future championship teams remains with the underclassmen who will star for Corcoran next year.

JV Football

The Corcoran JV Football team, under the astute guidance of Coach Church, compiled a 1-5-1 Won-lost record in the past season. Only a win over arch-rival Nottingham saved the junior Cougars from total disaster. Improvement is certain, as the members of this club will form the nucleus of future varsity squads.

JV Basketball

Row 1: Milburn McLain, Terry Curry, Charles Grace, Jim King, Dennis Flood, William Hicks, Bill Skinner, Keith Chatterton, Paul Blake, Tim Palma, Ken Meloon, Tom Young, Wayne Schoff, Mark O'Connell.

The junior varsity compiled a 10-4 record to finish in second place in the CNY City League and earned the right to play in the All-City JV game at the War Memorial, March 4th. Top performers were leading scorer Charles Grace, Denny Flood, Terry Curry, Jim King, Wayne Schoff, and top rebounders Tom Young and Paul Blake. Cougar followers will have much to cheer about in oncoming seasons as these sophomores will don varsity uniforms and carry on Corcoran's winning tradition.

Gymnastics

The 1965-66 Gymnastic Team was a third place finisher in the CNY City League. In six dual meets, the Corcoran array broke even. Top performers were leading scorer Rocco Grillo, and all-around participant, Paul Houndt on the side horse, and high bar, Tony Cavallo on rings, and John Fynmore on Floor exercise. Winning matches include a 44 point romp over Cortland, a 22 point victory over Nottingham, and a 16 point win against Fulton.

Wrestling

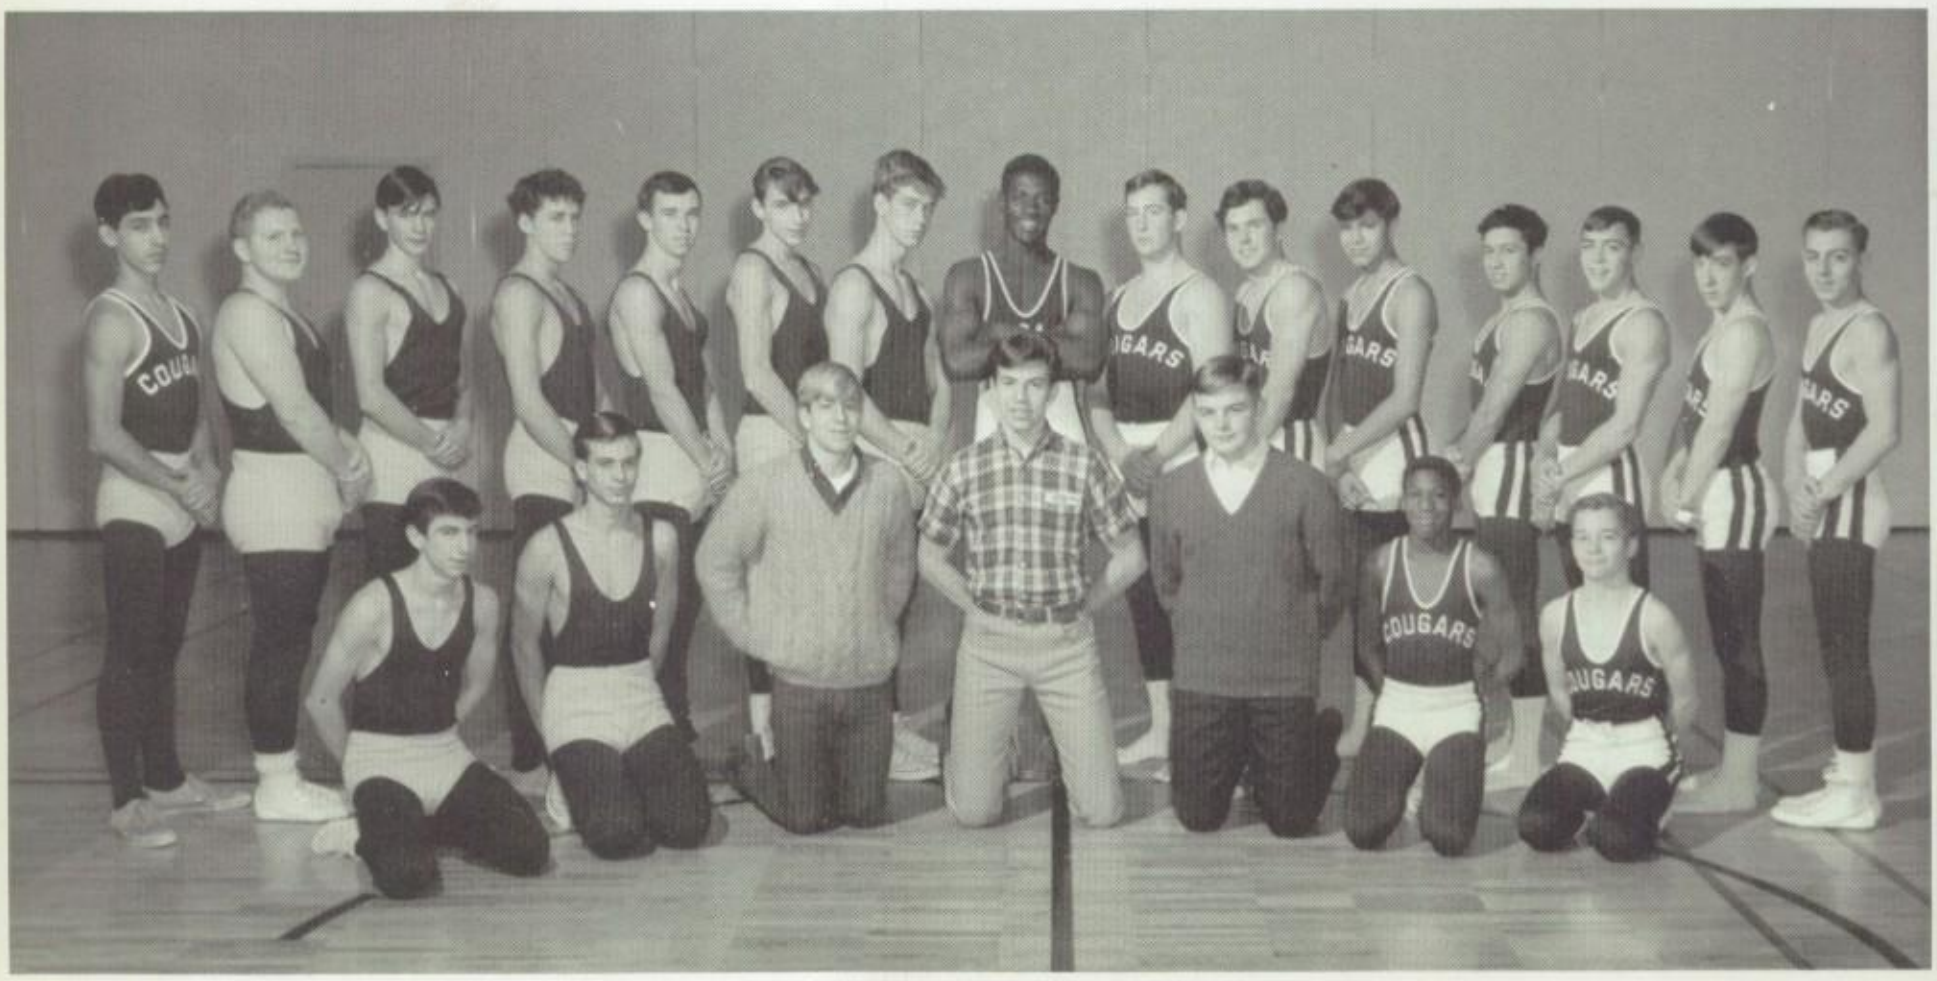
In the initial season for Varsity Wrestling, Coach St. George's team compiled a record of three wins, nine losses, and one tie. With the team composed mainly of underclassmen, it's hoepful that the record will improve next season. Leading performers were Ed Mathews, Gus Harrison, Carlo Talucci, and John Taisey.



Cross Country

Cross Country, one sport on the fall athletic calendar, saw the Corcoran team participate in 7 competitive meets with other schools. The boys were under the guidance of Coach Converse.

Soccer

Soccer, a new sport to most of the student body, existed on a club basis this year. With only one game played, a 2-1 loss to Fabius, the participants are hopeful of an organized soccer league for CNY City League schools, possibly next year. Interest for the sport was evolved in soccer instruction during Phys. Ed. classes, paving the way for even greater participation next year.
